

Bad Girls Party Rules

Outdoor Picnic Edition

If you cannot abide by these rules, please do not attend.

- This attendance-restricted picnic will not have Dungeon Monitors. We ask attendees to use good judgment for themselves and also support the welfare of others, following the numbered guidelines below.
 - The club will supply safer sex supplies and accessible portable toilets.
 - There will be first aid supplies and a first aid volunteer in attendance.
 - At check-in cameras on cell phones must be covered with blue tape.
1. NO means NO. Ask once, and if the answer is no, do not ask again.
 2. Respect others and their property. Do not touch toys or persons or interrupt/enter a scene without clear permission.
 3. Everyone outside a scene is asked to keep their voices down and maintain a reasonable distance. If scene participants request more distance or quiet, please comply. Some scene areas may be designated for watching and asking questions.
 4. Keep conversations limited to the area around the snack table and any other areas designated for socializing and negotiating with each other.
 5. Please clean up after yourself. Leave play areas as you found them.
 6. The house is off limits except to hosts, volunteers, and board members.
 7. Please respect that specific areas may be designated for certain kinds of play, or otherwise have restricted access.
 8. Wipe play furniture before and after use with provided disinfectant and paper towels. Wear gloves.
 9. Dispose of sharps in the sharps container provided.
 10. No gun play of any kind. No showing or exposing of guns whether real or realistic.
 11. Smoking is prohibited outside designated areas.
 12. No cameras or video equipment or recording devices of any kind may be directed towards general play spaces. Photographic devices are permitted only when all scene participants have agreed to be photographed.
